THE AREA

The North Umpqua River, which novelist Zane Grey called the most beautiful river in the world, as well as the South Umpqua River, winds through this family-centric community. Located centrally to the Oregon Coast, Crater Lake National Park, and the City of Eugene, Roseburg is home to an historic downtown, a museum of natural history, the Umpqua Valley Arts Center, the Festival of Lights, Wildlife Safari, and Music on the Half Shell.

THE DISTRICT

Roseburg Public Schools serves over 6000 students on 13 campuses: 1 high school (9-12), 1 charter high school, 1 alternative high school, 2 middle schools (6-8), and 8 elementary schools (K-5). Committed to excellence in every aspect of its operation, the district has gained a reputation as a school system dedicated to achieving high standards for all students. The community is supportive of our local schools with many employers and service groups encouraging and facilitating volunteerism in our schools.
